

City club mark the 30 years with celebration

CITY of Leicester Swimming Club held a celebration at Braunstone Leisure Centre to mark 30 years of activities.

The event attracted life members, former coaches and several members of Leicester's 1978 squad.

Coun Paul Westley, the deputy Lord Mayor, presented the Improvement Award trophy to the girls' 4x100m medley team of Rosemary Lucas, Carla Read, Claire Ashmore and Sophie Smith for their Nationals win.

The Volunteer Award went to treasurer Pat Stooke and the Achievement Award to Tsubasa Nakagawa. The Keith Moulding Endeavour Award, in memory of the coach who died six years ago, was shared by Bradley Mathew and Sophie Konterak.
